They are Cute Old Fellows.

The Les Miserables is a club composed of old bachelors and one or two young widowers of this city. Each member takes turn about in entertaining the club with an elegant supper. A few nights ago it was Mr. Geo. R. Davis' turn and he did the handsome thing at Crosdale's Cafe. They usually respond to toasts but on this occasion Mr. Davis introduced the unique idea of given each member a question to be answered—the following are a few that were asked and answered on that occasion:

What is marriage?
Marriage is an institution for the blind. Why do some people never marry?
Because they do not believe in divorce. When a man thinks seriously of marriage, what happens?
He remains single.

Does a girl ever think of anything but marriage?
Only that and how to get married. Should a man marry a girl for her money?

No. But he should not let her become an old maid just because she's rich. Is an engagement as good as marriage?
It's better.

When two thin people become engaged, what happens?
They immediately grow very thick.

When a man has popped the question, is he finished?
No; he has yet to question Pop.

When asking papa, how should a young man act?
He should face papa manfully and never give him a chance at his back.

WALL PAPER.—I have just received one of the handsomest lines of Wall Paper ever brought to our city. Call and see for yourself. First-class hanger to put it on.
